

Loss Prevention Officer – Calgary & Edmonton

London Drugs is seeking innovative, customer focused people to join our team! The Loss Prevention Officer position is well-suited for a highly capable security and investigations professional that thrives on working within a team environment. You will find state of the art technology, training and support, and a high integrity group of people committed to excellence.

Duties include:

- Shifts at store locations conducting surveillance, investigation, and maintenance of loss prevention systems
- Identifying areas of loss and working on team shrink reduction plans
- Detection and apprehension of persons committing criminal offences against the company
- Securing evidence, report writing & document preparation for court testifying purposes
- Special assignments including lock repair, key control, staff awareness and orientation
- Maintaining the overall security of our locations

Qualifications:

We have an extensive in-house training program. While we are eager to develop our people, candidates should possess the following skills and qualifications:

- Demonstrated ability to stay calm and respond with good judgment in emergency situations
- A commitment and history of protecting people and property in a safe and legal manner
- Demonstrated ability to work under strict confidentiality
- High ethical standards and a commitment to personal and professional integrity
- Good command of the English language, both written and verbal, required for report writing and court testimony
- A valid Class 5 driver's license and own vehicle
- Availability and willingness to work at all locations and surrounding areas
- Previous Loss Prevention experience or other related experience within the Criminal Justice system would be an asset
- Previous security related education, professional accreditation, first aid and first responder training is an asset
- Use of force and restraining device training is an asset
- Provincial security worker license, or the ability to obtain one before commencing work

Employees are scheduled 40 hours per week for full time status and must be available to work a flexible schedule, Monday through Sunday, for day and evening shifts. We also have part time positions available.

We are an equal opportunity employer. The above statements are intended to describe the general nature and level of work applicable to this position and are not intended to be an exhaustive list of all responsibilities, duties and skills required.
